School Board Approves New Superintendent Contract, Accepts Resignation of Two Teachers

By Janet Larreau

School board members approved a new superintendent contract, discussed the timeline for hiring a new principal, and accepted the resignation of two teachers at their regular meeting held on November 12.

A superintendent contract for the 2020-2022 school year was unanimously approved for current principal Joel Morgan. The search for a new principal was discussed in non-action items. The school will advertise the first part of December and applications will be due by early January. Interim Superintendent Mark Sievering and Principal Joel Morgan will review the list of candidates and conduct preliminary interviews, narrowing the search down to three or four candidates. A date of January 25th was set for community meet and greets, giving staff the opportunity to talk to the candidates. Formal board interviews will be held, and hopefully, by that afternoon, a contract will be offered. With regret, board members approved the retirements of K-12 art instructor Julie Mohr and K-12 music teacher Chrysanne Bailey. The search to replace these two teachers will start informally, and be in full force after the 1st of the year.

“We’ve heard about a teacher shortage, and we are seeing this shortage. Our hope is we’ll find some great candidates to replace them,” said Mr. Sievering.

Facility recommendations from Trane were given for the high school, including upgrades of electricity and windows and the HVAC system. Ultimately, the board decided to wait on the recommendations due to the upcoming community engagement process.

“We’ll hold off with the recommendations until we’ve gone through that process and know what the community thinks needs to be done,” said Mr. Sievering.

The next regular meeting will be held December 10 at 7:00 p.m., in the meeting room.

They had a lot of energy and were having a lot of fun on stage, which was fun for me to see,” said Head Coach Lana Cool.

Based on the Victor Hugo novel and songs from the Disney animated feature, “The Hunchback of Notre Dame”
